COURSE DETAILS

This in-depth video course will include teaching, sharing of client material, experiential, discussion & Expert Guest Teachers. All classes will be live on Zoom, with recordings available soon afterwards for registrants worldwide. An ongoing conversation between classes will take place on the Slack platform.

Class Description:

What are the “signs of your SOUL?”

Soul-ology is the understanding and study of your soul history, including Past Lives, Soul Origin & Soul Pod. Your Physical-Emotional Biology of today provides a window into your Soul-ology. Periodically, we experience symptoms of a Soul Upgrade as our human and soul agreements are expanded.

I invite you to JOIN this course with others like yourself to learn, share, and deepen your Soul-ology awareness.

As a community in this 4-month+ course, we will come together to learn and expand and heal with the intention of supporting one another and Humanity.

This new virtual “live” and recorded course will take you DEEP into your own Soul-ology expansion experience. The core of your Soul shows itself in your physical and emotional symptoms, your skills, and challenges, and in your memory bank.

In this course we will work with Spiritual Guides and Your Higher Self.

As you evolve to higher levels of soul wisdom, your current life agreements expand, leading to the need for one or more energy upgrades. A felt sense of these soul enhancements present as emotions and physical symptoms.

Topics Included & Questions to be Addressed:

- Is there intelligent life other than on Earth? The answer is a resounding YES. Souls incarnate in numerous locations beyond Earth.
- Where have most of your past lives occurred and what are the circumstances that likely affect you today?
- Do all souls have Past Lives?
- What is your Soul Origin? Earth, Interplanetary or Angelic?
- What is the overall intention of your Soul?
- What do certain physical-emotional symptoms of yours mean about your soul history?
- What is the purpose and how to cope with an energetic shift or upgrade of your soul energy to expand your abilities?
- Is the upgrade for our human or higher self?
- Do all souls have a pod and why?
- What is the purpose of spiritual myths? Are they true?
- What are the indications of an Interplanetary Child and how to be of support?
- How can we discover trauma and skills stored in our soul?
- How to strengthen your communication with guides, higher self and loved ones.

EXPERT GUEST TEACHERS

Expert guest teachers will join Dr. Linda Backman for sessions throughout the course.

Ashley Tracey (October 12)

Ashley Tracey, MS E-RYT, is an astrologer, soul coach, and teacher here to help expand your consciousness and activate purposeful living through a multidimensional mind-body-soul-cosmos approach.

Ashley teaches what the planets, signs, and houses of astrology really mean, diving deep into the language of astrology, exploring the different archetypes and energies of the zodiac, and how they come together in a birth chart.

Ashley hosts the Wholistic Soul Podcast, in which she demystifies astrology and all things spiritual, helping you reconnect to your sense of wholeness. By providing real life examples and practical applications, Ashley reveals that you are born whole, but as you go through life, that connection to your sense of wholeness becomes clouded and harder to find. The fear, the heartaches, the struggles, they all push you one step further away from the truth, that you are and will always be a wholistic soul.

Ashley integrates astrology with everyday well-being techniques to provide a deeper sense of self and an opportunity for healing, happiness & abundance. <http://www.ashleytracey.com/>

Patricia Pearce (November 16)

Patricia Pearce, MEd, MDiv, served as a Peace Corps Volunteer in the Andes of Ecuador after she graduated from college. It was there that the vision of doing some sort of ministry first came to her. After she returned to the US and taught Spanish and ESL for a few years, she enrolled in seminary in the Bay Area and became ordained as a Presbyterian clergy person. She later was to pastor Tabernacle United, a socially and theologically progressive church next to the University of Pennsylvania. Patricia had an awakening experience eventually leading her to leave her vocation as a pastor in the institutional church because she came to see how much the fallacy of separateness—or ego consciousness—had shaped Christian belief. She could see that Jesus wasn't a divine being set apart from the rest of humanity; he was demonstrating the fullness of our own essence, and opening the way for us to accept our own divine nature. Patricia resigned her position as a pastor in 2010, surrendered to the unknown, and trusted the process. The following year, she received a download that she would write a book called Beyond Jesus that would talk about how ego consciousness had shaped Christian belief. The book, which traces her journey and the insights it brought to her, was published in 2018.

Patricia's spirituality is closely intertwined with healing action in the world, and she has been involved in several peace and justice movements. She has helped refugees fleeing the wars in Central America, served as a rape crisis counselor, helped found a Habitat for Humanity chapter, served on the board of an addiction recovery community, and served a week in federal prison for engaging in nonviolent civil disobedience in response to the 2003 US invasion of Iraq.

She currently serves on the board of two nonprofits: ArtWell, which empowers underserved youth in Philadelphia to discover and express their creative and leadership capacities, and the Center for Contemporary Mysticism, which features programs by some of today's leading voices in spirituality, mysticism, and consciousness. <https://patriciapearce.com/>
